ABOUT ME

My background is in Data Analytics and Digital Content Creation. I offer tailored services to help you gain more online exposure. I work with many brands that meet my standards to help promote products and grow online. I create videos, photos, and blog articles on many online sites. I share myself using products to help promote quality items.

MY AUDIENCE

I discuss camera gear, tech, and office equipment. I also host regular shows about games and puzzles, which I enjoy. My audience demographic consists of professionals aged 25-35 who are looking to upgrade their computer and camera setups, as well as those interested in relaxing games that stimulate their minds.
